CAROLYN'S CORNER

With Interim Senior Pastor,
Rev. Carolyn Keilig

And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years". (Genesis 1:4, NRSV)

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven. (Ecclesiastes 3:1, NRSV)

Known commonly as the winter solstice, midwinter, or the first day of winter, we are now well past December 21, 2022, when we experienced the shortest day and longest night of that year. Slowly, but surely, the light of day is lengthening, and the night darkness is becoming shorter, bringing with it a reminder that winter is gradually changing into Spring. For those who love the snow and cold and all the wonderful and playful things that winter brings, the lengthening of the days is not a good sign. It is a reminder that the time for ice skating or hockey, downhill skiing or boarding, snow-shoeing or cross-country skiing will soon be past.

For those who are not that fond of winter, the addition of every minute of light to a new day is a thing of joy and the promise that as the sun daily rises above the horizon on an earlier basis, its light will shine forth on the earth and linger a bit longer.

The change from season to season is gradual, but relentless. We can't speed it up or slow it down; it moves steadily onward at a pace that is beyond our influence. While some wish the change would never come, for others the desire is that it be instantaneous.

So, it is with the seasons of our life of faith together. There are times when we wish the Spirit that is present would carry us forever – like when we hear the incredible music of our pipe organ that moves us to another level of joy. There are times when we seem to be in a wilderness period, with only a long and perilous journey in front of us – like we are slogging through a pandemic. Sometimes we may even believe we are in both kinds of seasons simultaneously! Whatever season our faith community finds itself in, one thing is sure: we are forever surrounded and supported by a loving God, whose presence in our life together will keep us moving forward in faith, if we pay attention to the Spirit's promptings.

The continuing pandemic makes this an ongoing challenging time for many if not most of us. Challenges can bring both renewed energy or exhaustion, and so call forth from us the reminder of the need to be attentive to one another and to the Spirit of Christ who dwells among us.

May the Light of Christ bless you,
Rev. Carolyn

Senior Moments

With Rev. Barbara Papagian

Are we having fun yet? I hope that you are finding some fun things to do during these not-so-fun times. It does no good to sit around being gloomy and negative. Yes, these are difficult times, but they are not going to get better any faster by being a "gloomy Gus".

In these wintry months it is hard to find outdoor fun things to do unless you are a skier and like snow sports. I can no longer do snow sports, so that is off my list of fun things, although the next time we get snow I am going to go in my back yard and make a snowman. I would do a snow angel, but I probably wouldn't be able to get up after flapping my arms and legs in the snow. I am going to confess something here and I beg you not to call in a Psychiatrist. Sometimes I put on music and I pretend I am an Olympic ice skater and pretend skate around the house, spinning and jumping (very small jumps) and being oh so graceful...at least in my eyes. It's great fun and good exercise. I challenge you to try it.

I also watch funny movies on TV and I watch some DVD's I have of Mr. Bean and Victor Borge... both very funny.

On the serious side, though, I do a lot of praying and meditating. These clear my mind and relax me. There is really nothing I can do to stop all the chaos in the world, but I can control my reaction to it. I certainly don't find anything funny in what's happening, but since laughter is a good medicine, I find funny things that make me laugh.

We need to find a balance. We need to have our quiet times when we can pray for all those who are ill with the virus and all the doctors and nurses caring for them. We need to help those in need of food and clothing. And to balance that, we need to find some joy and happiness, knowing that God is with us and with those in need.

So get those imaginary skates out and twirl around the living room to the sound of great music.

Smile and laugh, pray and relax. You will feel good.

Rev. Barbara

The church office remains open for now, but with some staggered staffing. We do ask that you call ahead to make sure the staff member you need to meet with is in (603-625-5093).

News from the FCC Outreach Committee

Souper Bowl IX is coming!

The Greater Manchester Clergy Association is once again sponsoring a contest to see which Faith Community can collect the most cans of soup (or any other healthy can of food) beginning the weekend of the Super Bowl, February 11th thru 13th.

Last year we raised almost $1500; the year before we had 1400 food items. This year we will be doing cans again, but since services will be online, we are asking you to start buying cans of soup and other non-perishable food items and delivering the bounty to the church office anytime during the week of February 13th. All Food Banks and Pantries have seen increased need in recent years. All food donated during this Souper Bowl collection will be given to New Horizons. The Outreach Committee thanks the congregation for their past generosity and is confident that we can do even better this year.

HELP KEEP OUR COMMUNITY FOOD PANTRY STOCKED

Women's Connection News February 2022

January is our annual game gathering month. We once again joined in on a Zoom BINGO game!

Seven ladies played regular BINGO but then we got creative and began coming up with different ways to win. Four corners, around the border and an X to name a few. Every time someone gets a BINGO it is counted and the one with the most wins at the end of the evening gets to have bragging rights and a hand made crown. We have played four times in the last year in a half and the winners have been Jeanine Finefrock, Barbara Papagian, and Terri Pattee. The new winner for this game was Pam LeBlanc!

If you would like to join us for a good time and missed this gathering, watch for when we play BINGO again or join us for our next gathering...

February 10th at 6:30pm on Zoom!
It will be our annual Valentine's Day themed gathering.

We will be making a very easy craft. Even if you are not crafty you can make this. Kits will be put together and available to pick up in the church office for a small fee. There are other activities being planned as well. Just email Pam (blanclp@comcast.net) or Denise (beau.de@comcast.net) to let them know you would like to join in on the fun!

The Women's Connection Mission Statement:

The Women's Connection offers opportunities for the women and friends of First Congregational Church to experience social time together, to build connections, and to strengthen friendships. We seek to encourage and support one another as we journey through life together at every season of our lives. All adult women are welcome to join us for whatever event interests them. Our activities are varied and have included outings, crafts, spiritual reflections, hiking and volunteering in the local community... something for everyone.

Open & Affirming Committee News and Reflections

"Accept one another, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God." Romans 15: 7 NIV

The Open and Affirming Committee invites you to a book study/discussion of Cara Meredith's memoir, The Color of Life: A Journey Toward Love and Racial Justice on Sunday, March 27th at 7pm via Zoom.

You still have time to read and enjoy this book, and a copy is available in the church office if you'd like to borrow it. You may wonder why our committee chose The Color of Life. Words in the title contains seeds for our choice and the questions below may factor into our discussion.

- ⇒ How did Cara's journey make you reflect on your own life?
- ⇒ How do we engage in conversations about race and racial justice with love?
- ⇒ And what does racial justice mean to us, to our congregation?

Reflections on The Color of Life from Carol Soucy

While reading one of the opening chapters, I realized that aspects of Cara's journey relate to my own personal experiences as a white child of the 50s and 60s. Her story brought back memories of life in a rural, small town and of our family's active involvement in the town's tiny Presbyterian church. Cara writes of her elementary principal's admonition that "If we are one thing, we are colorblind," and shares dinner table discussions about race as well as the teachings of the church of her childhood.

"...we steadied ourselves to sing the tune written on our hearts, the song of God who loves the little children, 'red and yellow, black and white'...Without even knowing it, opposing beliefs of seeing and not seeing took up room next to one another in my mind, vying for attention, making me wonder what I was supposed to say and not say, do and not do, see and not see when it came to race."

I sang the words of that beloved song in worship and Sunday School and like Cara's, our family engaged in dinner table discussions about race and the Civil Rights movement. I was one of those earnest, questioning kids, wondering about the same matters Cara raised. A question on the back of the book brings those earlier questions to mind. "How do we navigate ongoing and desperately needed conversations about race?" And how do we do so faithfully, with love, compassion, mutual understanding, and respect?

The Open and Affirming Committee will continue to share efforts with other FCC groups to learn more about issues around homelessness in our city, and what FCC can do to in this area.

Apostle Paul's words included our article's heading also appeared on the cover of the ONA Task Force FAQs pamphlet in 2016. It's good to be reminded of Christ's example and the use of the verb, accept. The verse speaks to our committee's purposes and congregational promises of the Open and Affirming Covenant. We praise God when we sincerely, actively welcome one another, and we are blessed that God's gifts of love and grace are available to all.

NEWS FROM THE FCC MEAL TRAIN!

By Liz Verity

Peggy and I are continually grateful for those who willingly contribute to our Meal Train outreach!

At this time we are looking to restock our Meal Train supplies.

If you would like to provide a small, one serving meal (we often deliver to those who live alone), a soup, muffins, small breads and of course everyone's favorites, cookies, we would be very grateful. We hope that in providing a treat or a meal, it sends the message: "We Care About You!"

We especially need cookies for our FCC family, the staff at UpReach and Liberty House occupants. UpReach staff is isolated, just as we are, and would appreciate a "caring" gesture as they wait to restart their programs. Liberty House occupants can always use a "caring" hand.

All items are stored in the downstairs freezer, and if you can label items "Meal Train", date, and mark the contents it would be helpful. For example, write: "Chicken Chili Meal". If you are making soups, and need the containers we use, (this helps us with sizing uniformity), please contact either of us, info below.

We are closely following the Church guidelines, and therefore ask that you wear your mask, and call ahead to be sure someone will be available. At this time if you are not comfortable delivering to church, we would be happy to make arrangements to pick up items from you.

Quick and Easy Vegetable Soup

- 28 oz Vegetable broth
- 2 (11.5) cans V-8 juice
- 1 2/3 cups water
- 1 3/4 cups potato... diced
- 3 medium carrots ... sliced
- 3 stalks of celery
- 28 oz can diced tomatoes, undrained
- 1 2/3 cups chopped, fresh or frozen green beans
- 1 2/3 cups fresh or frozen corn kernels.

- 1/4 cup fresh basil or 1/2 tsp, dried
- 1/4 tsp dried oregano
- Salt and Pepper to taste

In a large stockpot, combine broth, tomato juice, water, potatoes, carrots, celery, undrained diced tomatoes, green beans and corn.

Season with salt, pepper, basil and oregano.

Bring to a boil and simmer for 30 mins until all veggies are tender. This makes 10 servings. You can halve the recipe, or make and donate to family, friend, neighbor, or the Meal Train!

From time to time we pass on a recipe for you to make, and enjoy. So during these cold winter months we thought we would feature a soup. Seen above is a variation of the one featured in the Women's Connection Cookbook submitted by Ruth Knowles and Jeanine Finefrock.

Contact Peggy Neveu (frannys1@aol.com) or call 603-483-8388 or Liz Verity (liz-v@comcast.net) or 603-623-7461, if you have any questions or wish to identify a friend in need of an extra boost.

Once again Peggy and I are very grateful for those who can help, now or at any time in the future.

—The Meal Train Ladies, Peggy & Liz—

A Note on the New Instant Church Directory ...

A new church directory was something that the Membership Team has been thinking about for a few years. Bill Jones and Pam LeBlanc decided to take the job on and get it rolling. They explored ideas and talked with Linda Bonetti and Lauren Henderson about the best way to accomplish this and decided to do it all in house. This is where you, the congregation, was asked to send in your own selfie or family picture. Once Lauren received the pictures she began making a file.

Then Rev. Carolyn joined in on our Membership meeting and told us about the Instant Church Directory that she was very familiar with. We talked more about it and got the information and Lauren took off with it. She learned the program and worked diligently entering all the pictures and everyone's information. We now have our own Instant Church Directory that we all need to thank Lauren for. A GIANT THANK YOU goes out to you, Lauren, from the Membership Team and the congregation. We all appreciate everything you have done to make this project real. For those of you who don't know, Lauren is now the Directory Administrator. If you don't have a picture in the new directory yet, it is not too late to put one in. You can go to members.InstantChurchDirectory.com and put in your picture.

Then Lauren, our Directory Administrator, will get an email to accept it.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, LAUREN!!!

With Heartfelt Thanks. . .

On behalf of myself and my family, I would like to thank everyone for their support during our time of loss. The love that has surrounded us expressed through your cards, notes, prayers and actions has been wonderful and comforting. We thank you for the remembrances and respect shown for Fred.

Peace & Blessings, Nancy Simmons
